Edison Masterpiece Is Showing at Bijou

It is "Killed Against Orders," and Features the Charming Miriam Nesbitt.

The big feature on the Bijou screen today is a three-part Edison masterpiece, "Killed Against Orders." It is a story of a master thief and his lovely daughter. Miss Marian Nesbitt takes the leading part. This picture was built especially for Miss Nesbitt, and is an exceptionally high class production. "Lorna Doone," a two-part Klaw and Erlanger feature, is also shown. A Hearst-Selig News Pictorial and "The Law Breaker," close the bill.

Thursday Miss Alice Joyce and Guy Combs will appear in a four-act production of Sheridan's great comedy, "A School for Scandal." In 140 years critics have placed this play at the head of all comedies.
Hundreds of thousands of people have seen the greatest Broadway stars in the many serials of this celebrated play during the last few years.
Your opportunity is now.

Edna May recently sang her famous Salvation Army song, "Follow On," from "The Belle of New York," at a war benefit in London at which three queens and a number of lesser royal and noble lights were present.

Episode number five of the great serial drama, "The Black Box," featuring the ever popular player, Herbert Rawlison and Anna Little and supported by a large cast of noted actors, is being shown in two amazing acts today at the Orpheum theatre. A synopsis of all that has passed appears on the screen for the benefit of those who have unfortunately missed the preceding episodes. Late war pictures are also shown together with a Thanhouer comedy that is a screen and a thousand feet of other interesting pictures. This truly is a great program.

Tomorrow an American drama, beautiful and fascinating, "The Castle Ranch," in a class by itself, featuring popular Winifred Greenwood and clever Ed Coxen will be the chief offering. This was produced in the most beautiful spot in the world, and is sublimely pictured.

The "Whirl of Mirth" company is still pleasing large audiences at the Odeon theatre. It is certainly an up-to-date little show. The comedy is handled by very good comedians and the musical numbers are all the latest song hits. The chorus is exceptionally pretty and its members are all good singers and dancers.
There will be a complete change

Many new and pretty song hits have been secured for the latest, newest and best of all musical comedies, namely, Jack Sutter's beauty show, "Refugee Me," which is booked to appear at the Palace theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday. One of the principal assets of this company is the chorus, in which there are twelve girls, all baby dolls, as pretty as any picture. The scenic splendor of their dainty and attractive costumes adds greatly to their natural beauty and charm.

of the male members of the company, acknowledged to be one of the real of the best ever seen with a similar the hero must contrive an "accidental" end for himself. In spite of all efforts he fails at first, and then very nearly succeeds at just the time when circumstances have changed and he wants to live after all.

Edward Ables plays the role of Ted Ewing, the hero of this strange tale, with such sincerity and enthusiasm that he makes the most unlikely complications seem entirely credible.

A. H. Woods is about the middle of August to produce in New York a play by Max Martin called "I Want Money." T. Roy Barnes, who has been in vaudeville, will have the principal comedy part. Another production by the same manager will be a play which has just been put on the London stage entitled "Advertisements," by B. McDonald Hastings, author of "The New Sin." "Advertisements" deals with Jewish life.

Wants Game with West Virginia Wesleyan College Football Eleven.

BUCKHANNON, May 5.—The biggest compliment ever paid to Wesleyan's great advancement in every department of inter-collegiate athletics was received here today in the shape of an offer from the University of Michigan for a game of football between the Michigan and Wesleyan team at Ann Arbor on either of two October dates suggested. Wesleyan has previously been offered games by the Navy, Michigan Aggies, and a number of other big teams, and meets or has met Pennsylvania State, Car-liste, Washington and Jefferson, etc., but this is considered by all odds the best thing in the way of recognition that Wesleyan has ever received. Wesleyan has both the dates filled on its schedule, but telegraphic communication is being carried on in an endeavor to so shift the game, scheduled that Michigan may be met.
